

SJV Data Solutions' Resume Verification

Beyond a candidate's manufactured profiles. Get to what's real. When you need to know someone, you need SJV Data Solutions.

Verifications: Driving You Nuts?

We know. Verifications are often the cause of delayed application turnaround times. They tax your internal operations and are not nearly as profitable as the other background screening services you offer. Yet you can't be "in the business" without them. And when an avalanche of verifications hit, your business can experience significant backlogs- putting you at risk with your clients.

A True Extension of Your Operation

Not just cost-effective, but also comprehensive and focused on the attention to detail, just like you'd be if you were doing verifications yourself. SJV Data Solution's verification service includes:

- Employment Verifications
- Education Verifications
- DOT Verifications

Whether you're looking to outsource verifications altogether or identify a partner to help you with overflow and backlog, SJV Data Solutions is here to help. In fact, if you add up your true costs of maintaining your verification process in-house, SJV Data Solutions can actually help you reduce risk and become more profitable. This is a real case of "do less, risk less" and "be more profitable".
